The Late Late Crew was founded in October of 2002 and has been going strong ever since. The clan initially formed around the "Medal of Honor: Allied Assault" game for the PC and has also had a strong following around these other games: Medal of Honor: SpearheadCall of DutyBattlefield 2Call of Duty 2Call of Duty 4: Modern WarfareBattlefield: Bad Company 2Left 4 Dead (1 & 2)

Currently, the clan's primary focus is Battlefield: Bad Company 2. =[LLC]= currently operates one BF:BC2 server. =[LLC]= prides itself on providing an environment that is fair and fun for all; the servers are actively policed by clan admins to remove offensive or disruptive players. Our group has earned a reputation in the gaming community for having some of the best-run and enjoyable game servers.

The clan runs a message board and photo gallery so that our community can stay connected outside of the gaming world. Feel free to check it out and register for an account. Our community actively posts in a variety of topics, including online gaming, computers, politics, sports and more. We hold our forums to the same high standard of professionalism under the watchful eye of our forum admins.

Thanks to the hard work of clan members Stavro and Zoner we also have an online store of sharp-looking merchandise including shirts, hats and other cool accessories. Stop by the today and pick up your very own piece of exclusive =[LLC]= swag today!

=[LLC]= also has a number of events and activities to build the strong sense of community that our group is known for. Look out for the annual IronMan contests, with SWAG prizes, and =[LLC]= occasionally enters league play in certain games.
